THE MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS

VOL. XVI. MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1919 No. 2

BIG ATTENDANCE AT RECEPTION

President Thomas and Dr. Lawrence Speak to Students

Glee Club Quartet Sings; Informal Dance Closes Evening

Nearly the whole college body, student and faculty, was present at the joint reception of the Y. W. C. A. and Undergraduate Association held in the McCullough gymnasium last Saturday evening. After an hour spent in informally "getting acquainted" the program of the evening began under the direction of Kasper, '20.

President Thomas, as the first speaker, briefly addressed the student body, giving a bit of wise council both to freshmen and to upper classmen, and in his characteristically genial manner welcoming the class of 1923 to Middlebury college life.

Dr. Lawrence then entertained the gathering with a reading from "Mr. Dooley" on college professors, and with a mock commencement address which contained food for thought beneath its humor.

After the speeches the Glee Club Male Quartet rendered two selections, and then led the student body in the singing of Midd songs. After the customary "snake dance" the party was metamorphosed into an "informal" which lasted until eleven o'clock.

WAYNE C. BOSWORTH OPENS LAW OFFICE

Rhodes Scholar Comes to Middlebury to Live

Wayne C. Bosworth, native of Addison County, graduate of Middlebury College, and of Oxford University, England, announces this week the opening of an office in the Battell Building, Middlebury, for the general practice of law. Mr. Bosworth is well remembered at Middlebury, particularly for his high standing in scholarship in the class of 1911, in which he won Phi Beta Kappa honors and also the Rhodes' scholarship at Oxford.

He was born in Bristol, the son of William H. and Hattie (Cook) Bosworth, February 2, 1891, and prepared for college in the Bristol High Schoo and the State Model School at Trenton, N. J. He entered Middlebury in 1907, and having a law course in view, he specialized on jurisprudence and made this also his special work at Trinity College, Oxford, where he studied from 1913 to 1917. His intention to enter practice immediately was side-tracked by the outbreak of war and his enlistment in the First Vermont Regiment, with which he went to France in Sept. 1918. After the Armistice he spent several months as an Army Student at Oxford, and returned to this country last July.

Mr. Bosworth is unmarried, is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity, and his parents' home is now in Florence, Mass. His father is well known in Addison County, having been connected with the Bristol Maufacturing Company of Bristol until a few years ago when he moved to Florence, Mass. to engage in a similar business there.

MIDDLEBURY DEFEATED BY WEST POINT IN OPENING GAME OF SEASON

Blue and White Makes Auspicious Showing Against Heavier and More Experienced Cadet Team

"Pepper" Ross's Aggregation Holds Army Gridders to Two Touchdowns; Defense Strong

Playing against a West Point team which outweighed the comparatively light Blue eleven by about 20 pounds to a man, the Midd gridiron artists last Saturday put up one of the pluckiest and gamest exhibitions of the winter pastime that has been witnessed in West Point for some time. Though defeated by a score of 14 to 0 the local boys uncovered a degree of grit and football ability which surprised their more experienced and heavier opponents and which gives promise of a big year for "Pepper" Ross's warriors.

The game started with McQuarrie kicking off for West Point but the Midd backs found the Army line practically inpregnable and Parker was forced to punt. During the first part of the period the Cadet line seemed to charge slowly and their backs found difficulty in penetrating the Blue defense but with about three minutes to play the Army secured the ball on Midd's 45-yard line and Lystad got away for a spectacular end run and crossed the line for the first touchdown McQuarrie kicked the goal. In the second period the play was almost entirely in Midd's territory but the light Blue line proved a veritable stone wall when the goal was seriously threatened and McQuarrie failed at two attempts at field goals. The first half ended with the score 7 to 0 in favor of West Point.

The strong Cadet eleven showed improvement as the game progressed and in the third period they outplayed the rapidly tiring Blue hosed gridders. Receiving the ball near the middle of the field the Army started a steady march down the field but with the ball on Midd's 1-yard line the period closed. Upon resumption of play Shabacker took the pigskin over the line on the first play through center. Throughout the remainder of the game the Blue and White fought hard and g and held their powerful opponents well. The game ended with the ball in West Point's possession on Midd's 40-yard line.

ONE HUNDRED MEN SIGN UP FOR R. O. T. C.

"Prexy," Prof. McFarland and Prof. Bonney Address Men

As the Result of Meeting Monday Eve Students May Have Military Training

Official announcement was made Tuesday that a petition signed by one hundred Middlebury men has been sent to the military authorities at Boston with the request that an army officer be stationed permanently at Middlebury to have charge of a branch of the R. O. T. C. here. The required number necessary for the establishment of such a corps here signed up as the result of a final appeal made to the men at Hepburn social hall. Prior to Monday evening approximately fifty had signed up.

Prof. MacFarland was the first speaker Monday evening and he explained the advantages of universal military training. He told how the student taking the course would be not only working to help his country, but also for the welfare of his alma mater. Prof. Bonney spoke next, on the subject of partiotism, and greatly urged every fellow to take the course. Lastly, President Thomas talked on the benefits that the R. O. T. C. unit would be to the college. He assured the men that every effort would be made to arrange the schedules of those not taking the course because of conflicts.

MIDD MEN TO WORK ON LONG TRAIL SAT.

Lake Pleiad Will be Base Camp for Workers this Fall

The Pleiad section of the Green Mountain Club which was formed at Middlebury last year will begin activities with renewed vigor this fall, up in the mountains near Lake Pleiad. Work for this season of the year was contemplated last spring when Professors Voter, White and Davis built a lodge near Lake Pleiad, which is to be used as the base camp for cutting through the Long Trail from the Lake to Brandon Gap.

Under the superintendency of Professors White and Davis some college men will be ready to start with real work Saturday afternoon. Work will be pushed forward steadily every week-end so that the trail will be completed before the heavy snows set in.

All members of the college are eligible for membership in the club. The membership fee for the remainder of 1919 and for the whole of 1920 will be one dollar.

Members who desire to make the week-end trips to the mountain are assured of their board which is paid for by the Club. The food is substantial and well cooked, plenty of it being on hand to satisfy everyone. There are also enough good beds in the lodges to accommodate any number who may desire to make the trip.

Changes in Railroad Schedule

The northbound afternoon flyer will be due at 5:35, and the southbound train at 5:06. The Sunday evening southbound train has been changed from 6:12 to 6:25.

EDITORIAL

To the Freshmen

Freshmen! What are you going to do for your college? What are you, yourself, going to give to the student activities such as The Campus, the Athletic Team, the Glee Club, the Choral Union, the Orchestra, the Christian organization, the Undergraduate Association, and the Student Government Association? Stop right now and take a few minutes to think it over. Now is the time to do so, right at the beginning of your college course. You are freshmen, now, it is true and your part in any of these activities will be necessarily small. Yet some day you are going to be seniors, the leaders of these organizations. Four years from now a man from the class of 1923 will assume the duties of Editor-in-Chief of The Campus, a woman from the class of 1923 will be needed as Assistant Editor-in-Chief. It will be a man from your class who will be captain of the football team, members of your class who will be presidents of the Student Government Association and the Under Graduate Association. So one might continue down through the list of student activities. Do you expect to be able to step at once into these positions of responsibility when that seeming far off time comes, as it will come, all too soon? If you are going to carry on this work with credit to yourself and to the old college, you must begin to train for it now.

In the United States we often say that every boy has the possibility of becoming the President of the United States. Men and women of the class of 1923, every one of you has not only the possibility but the probability of becoming a necessary and honored part of one of these college organizations. It rests with you! Take stock of your own abilities however slight they may be. In the list of student activities there is surely one in which you could use your own particular ability to the advantage of yourself and of Middlebury.

A college is a world in itself on a small scale. Its organizations are but miniatures of those in outside life. In the service of these organizations you will find a training school in the practical subjects of organization, office management, business initiative and leadership. But of more importance than this appeal to personal advantage, is the fact that the student organizations of Middlebury College need your help and your co-operation to continue and improve their present standards. The college needs what you, the class of 1923, can give to her. Will you give?

Midd in the Air

Middlebury men are making themselves known for their exploits in the air as well as on land.

Charles F. ("Casey") Jones '15 was the winner of the second prize in the Mineola-Toronto air race, which was held about two weeks ago. "Casey" is perhaps our best known flier. He graduated from Middlebury in 1915 with a number of "M's" won in almost every branch of athletics and several years later, when the war broke out, joined the aviation corps of the army. He served in France for over a year, two months of which time he was at the front, and was awarded the Croix de Guerre for squadron work. Last June Jones won for himself the distinction of being the first Midd man to attend Commencement in an aeroplane. He is at present a government aviator at Mineola, N. Y.

Another Midd man who is winning fame for exploits in the air is Lieut. John J. Lynch ex-'19. "Jack" owns a 100-horse power Curtiss battle-plane. Last February he attended the world's first flying circus at Rockwell Field, San Diego, Cal., and with hundreds of other daring aviators did many of the most dangerous stunts in the air. This summer he has been using his plane mostly in flights around the state and during fair time did stunt flying at most of the Vermont fairs. Lynch has recently formed a partnership agreement with "Stan" Wright '19 who now accompanies him on his flights. These two aviators are now planning a trip south for the winter. They will fly by easy stages from Rutland, Lynch's home town, to Glens Falls, N. Y., then to Poughkeepsie or Mineola, and thence to Covington, Va. They intend to give exhibition flights there and in North Carolina.

Friday, September 19, Lieut. Lynch suffered a stroke of hard luck at Peeksville, N. Y. On attempting to leave that place for New York City in his plane, the machine struck some trees, practically demolshing the wings and propeller, and making it necessary to cancel several engagements which he had made in the south.

Lieut. Lynch was driving the ship and had as passenger his chief mechanic, J. Duffy. Neither the pilot nor his mechanic were injured in any way.

Lieut. Stanley Wright, of Middlebury, who is in partnership with Lynch, George Hulihan and G. Glynn, mechanics employed by the aviator, who were making the trip by automobile, have returned. It is understood that Lieut. Lynch and his chief mechanic have gone to New York to purchase another airplane, and they may possibly be seen coming into Rutland with a new ship in the near future.

College Choir Elections

The following students have been selected by Professor Bissell to sing in the college choir this year. Sopranos: Prudence Fish, Ruth Joslin, Gertrude Graves, Ruth Cambridge, Beatrice Dumas. An Acknowledgement

In last week's issue of The Campus an error was made in designating the class of J. Cardell. Cardell graduated in the class of '18.

1920 Holds Annual Elections

The first meeting of the senior class took place in the Hemicycle last Monday afternoon. Following the reports of the secretary and treasurer and the various committee chairmen, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Stewart Ross; Vice-president, Ruth Joslin; Secretary, Mildred Hubbard; Treasurer, Clesson Parker.

Stewart Ross

The new senior president came to us from West Rutland High School, and immediately began to show his mettle as a Midd man. "Stew" made the 'Varsity football and baseball squads his freshman year, won a position on the basket ball team as a sophomore, and now holds down the job of football captain. He has served as chairman of the Sophomore Rules Committee and on the Student Council. He is a member of the Chi Psi fraternity and also of the Sage and Waubanakee organizations.

Ruth Mary Joslin

Miss Joslin is a graduate of Northfield Seminary, and has been a prominent member of the class of 1920 since her freshman year. During her college career she has rendered valuable service to the Women's College through the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, the Student Government Council, the Pan-Hellenic Council, the Executive Committee of the Civics Club and through her support of various minor activities. She is a member of the Sigma Kappa sorority, and was elected last year to the Banshee society.

200 TICKETS SOLD IN FIRST 2 HOURS

The tickets for the series of lectures and concerts to be given under the management of the Student Life Committee were put on sale to members of the college Thursday afternoon. A large amount of interest must have been aroused on the campus by the announcement of this course of entertainment, for during the first two hours of sale more than two hundred tickets were disposed of.

Dr. Jacob J. Ross, who was Midd's physical director two years ago and who returned from France where he served as captain in the medical corps, last spring, has bought the old "presidential mansion" and has set up an office here at Middlebury for general and surgical practice. Dr. Ross was in charge of the White Rock Hospital at White Rock, N. C., this summer.

SPORT WRINKLES

By Burgins

The gentle art of gridiron pastiming was ushered in last Saturday by most of the universities and colleges with no surprising upsets. The peculiar and gratifying thing about it was that old Emperor Weather gave the elevens an excellent sendoff in the way of a fine football day.

The World Series will occupy the center of the stage in official sportdom for the next few weeks and then give way to the King of Winter Sports. The "serious" this year is of especial interest to Middlebury inasmuch as "Pick" Fisher '10 is expected to play a leading role in the fight of the Cincinnati Reds to uphold the honor of the National League against the White Sox. "Pick" starred during his college days here both on the gridiron and diamond and though this is the first time he is to get a slice of the big coin, he was always recognized as a star hurler when he was with the New York Yankees with which team he broke into the major leagues. This year "Pick" has been displaying excellent form and Middlebury will watch his work in the big fuss with a great deal of interest. "Here's wishing you the best of luck, 'Pick'."

The excellent showing that the Blue and White made at West Point will go a long way towards putting Midd before the eyes of the public. After all athletic achievement still remains about the most effective means by which a college can gain legitimate publicity.

"Keck" Parker's punting in the Army game was the best that the New Britain star has yet done. "Keck" seems primed for a great year on the gridiron. In "Pepper" Ross and Parker, Midd boasts of a pair of really clever and experienced backs.

Midd's football stock soared a little higher yesterday when "Tony" Good, star end on the 1916 championship eleven resumed his studies on the hill. "Tony" played a great game at the wing position in '16 and he will no doubt prove of great value to Coach Brown. Before entering the service "Tony" acted as athletic coach of Bridgeport, (Conn.) High School.

A great deal of surprise is occasioned by the announcement that Fordham University is not to be represented on the gridiron this fall. Midd was to have played against the Maroon on October 4, but Manager Woodward has arranged a game with Boston College at the Hub for that date. B. C. is being coached this year by Major Frank Cavanaugh ex-Dartmouth football tutor and is reputed to have a regular "Cavanaugh" eleven.

"Simmy" Murch, probably the most popular man that has ever coached a Blue and White team, is still in the service of the Knights of Columbus. At present he is stationed at Newport, R. I., where he is doing some very efficient work as K. of C. secretary. "Sim" plans to visit Middlebury soon and it seems needless to say that those of us who know him and who have enjoyed and profited by his tutelage will be only too glad to see the genial mentor once again. "Sim" is the type of coach and advisor, contact with whom, has given Midd men one of the greatest benefits of their college careers.

U. V. M. opened its foot-ball season last Saturday with an easy victory over Clarkson Tech. According to all reports the Green and Gold is represented by a fast and heavy eleven this year and the prospects seem to point towards one of the greatest gridiron battles ever seen in Vermont when the Blue and the Green clash on Centennial Field, Nov. 22.

SUGGESTS FISHER FOR HALL OF FAME

(By N. E. Brown in Syracuse Herald)

Is the gentleman who tends the door at the hall of fame about to open the portals for Ray Fisher?

Maybe so.

At least Fisher, one of the fortunate members of Pat Moran's crew, hopes to get the high sign.

Fisher broke into the big leagues back in 1910 as a member of the Yankees under George Stallings. Ray had the earmarks of a great hurler and for short intervals looked like one, but for some reason or other couldn't stand the pace.

The fact that the Yankees never got far out of the rut might have had something to do with Fisher's inability to break through the crust. He had one big year, however, when he won 18 and lost 11 games for the mediocre Gotham crew.

Last spring he was released to the Cincinnati Club as part of the Schneider deal. He started off like a whirlwind for Moran, but lately has not been used very frequently. He is not done, though, by any means. Moran has been using Sallee, Eller, Luque, Ring and Reuther and they have been going without help from Ray.

It looks more and more as though nothing can keep the Reds away from Pennantville and if they do break into the grand grind Fisher may be of value to Moran in one of two ways or both.

He has pitched to practically all of the men who stand a chance of breaking into the series from the American League end and knows their peculiarities and weaknesses. If he does not get into the game he will be able to slip the hurlers who do some pointers.

Then there is the other way. He may break into the game, Moran figuring that he might be able to halt the opposition because of his knowledge of them, although Miller Huggins and other American league managers figured he was through.

I think there is no one who would begrudge Fisher the glory that would be his if he did get the big chance and made good. (Sept. 12, '19)

Colgate Freshman Drowned

A Colgate freshman was drowned last week Wednesday night in Lake Moraine where he had been taken by a party of sophomores on a hazing party. There are several versions of how the accident happened. One report is that the freshman fell from a boat while his limbs were bound by ropes, although President E. B. Bryan of the university gives credence to the story that he was drowned while trying to swim in company with two other freshmen from an island, where they had been taken, to the mainland, in an effort to escape from the sophomores.

MIDD DEFEATED BY WEST POINT

Midd was unable to make a single first down during the game, a fact which gives evidences of the strong line which the Cadets had. The defence of the Blue and White backfield, however, is worthy of especial mention. "Pepper" Ross, Drost and Parker being in every play, while Kalin and Brown were also pillars of strength on the line. "Keck" Parker, though called upon to punt more than a dozen times, showed excellent form and more than held his own with the Army booters throughout.
